

Up, Down and Around the Devil's Punchbowl (8 miles)

This beautiful walk takes you on a hilly trail around the Devil's Punchbowl, offering panoramic views en route, and dipping down into Haslemere town, a good place to stop off if you want a coffee, cake or snack before climbing back onto the ridge. Eight miles of beautiful woods, fields and slopes.

Starting point: The National Trust car park at Hindhead GU26 6AB. (charges for non-NT members). There are toilets and a café there. Or if you prefer you could start the walk in Haslemere and walk up to the Devil's Punchbowl for lunch.
