

Holmbury St Mary to Leith Hill and back (7.5 miles)

This walk goes from the picturesque village of Holmbury St Mary along part of the Greensand Way to reach the heights of Leith Hill and – on a clear day – views far across the South Downs to the sea. The rest of the walk tracks through some beautiful Surrey countryside and villages – Coldharbour, Broadmoor, Friday Street – back to the start point where the Royal Oak may still be open for food and drink. There are some hills on this 7.5 mile walk but all are gentle, and the views will reward the effort.

Start point: park around the green in Holmbury St Mary, near the Royal Oak pub. RH5 6PF.
