

Walking Iron Hill (11.5 miles)

A picturesque walk around the Surrey Sussex Borders with no villages but nice quiet drover tracks and some lane walking.

Distance: 11.5 miles. Terrain: the ground is rough in places. The walk includes some hills with a long uphill near the end although there are also stretches of easy walking with lots of mud.

Starting Point: Iron Hill car park, Liphook Hampshire. Follow the signs to the railway station, after you have gone over the railway bridge the Iron Hill Car park is about ¾ mile on your left.
