

Most of the Surrey Hills (12.5miles)

A walk in the Surrey Hills using forest trails, paths, and a fair chunk of the Greensand Way. From Peaslake head up through Hurt Wood and Winterfold Wood, eventually reaching the Greensand ridge, then follow The Greensand Way to Holmbury Hill before branching off to Leith Hill. After taking in the view (hopefully) take The Greensand Way to Holmbury St Mary and then back to Peaslake. Distance and terrain: 12.5 miles. Hilly with some steep ups and downs, mostly on sand but with a few muddy patches and some stony, uneven ground.

Starting Point: Walking Bottom Car park, Peaslake.
