

Peaslake and Albury Heath (5 miles)

A short walk across some great Surrey countryside, walking along part of the Greensand Way to go through farmland and woods and up some (small) hills. There are a number of stiles in this 5-mile walk but it's definitely worth all the effort. On the return to Peaslake village, a good shop and the excellent Hurtwood Inn provide opportunities for food and drink.

Starting point: the car park behind the Hurtwood Inn
