

Westerham Stroll (7miles)

This is a beautiful, hilly circular walk in the Kent hills around the historic town of Westerham. In its seven-mile course it offers views of some of the best hills and woods in this part of the Weald. At one point the walk skirts around Chartwell, once the home of Winston Churchill and now a National Trust property with a fine café. Westerham offers numerous pubs and cafés at the end of the walk.

Start point: Hosey Common Car Park, Westerham
